GET YOUR AGENCY INVOLVED

April is Child Abuse Prevention Month. Here are some ways your agency can help create awareness:

1 Wear a lapel pin creating awareness on the cause during the month of April.	2 Put blue pinwheels in the lawn area of your department.	3 Create a blue display outside of your department for the month of April	4 Tie blue ribbons outside.
5 Plan days throughout the month of April to wear blue and show your support to end child abuse and neglect.	6 Have your SRO pass out blue lollipops during the month of April.	7 Network with your local schools to raise awareness.	8 Get local business involved and have them decorate their windows or outside in blue.
9 Post information on your departments social media sites creating awareness about Child Abuse Prevention Month.	10 Share Blue Kids materials from our website throughout your community.	11 We always welcome you to think of your own ways to show support during the month of April.	12 If your department needs additional information about Blue Kids, contact Carrie Wings: CWings@lakecountyil.gov
